

LỜI NGUYỆN GIÁO DÂN

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

Chủ tế:

Brothers and sisters, Jesus reminds us that “those who live in abundance but close their hearts to others” are not worthy of the Kingdom of Heaven. With faith, confidence and trust in God’s providence, let us humbly offer our prayers:

Xướng viên:

1. For Pope Leo, all Bishops and priests: May they always be faithful witnesses to the spirit of Gospel poverty. Let us pray to the Lord.
2. For leaders of nations throughout the world: May they recognize the sufferings of their people, especially in places afflicted by war and violence. Let us pray to the Lord.
3. For the poor, the sick and the abandoned: May they find in the Church a spiritual home where their suffering is illumined by the hope of resurrection, and may they find support from charitable organizations, and hope in God’s love. Let us pray to the Lord.
4. The gap between the rich and the poor in our society continues to widen. Let us pray for all members of our parish community, may they never turn a blind eye to the needy, but be ready to share with those who are poor and less fortunate. Let us pray to the Lord.
5. In silence, let us place before the Lord our personal intentions... Along with these petitions, let us also pray for those who have requested our prayers at this mass, and for all the faithful departed, that they may share in the glory of God’s Kingdom. Let us pray to the Lord.

Chủ tế:

Merciful God, hear the prayers of your people. Teach us to open our hearts in generosity and compassion, so that one day we may rejoice with you in the happiness of your Kingdom. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
