

LỜI NGUYỆN GIÁO DÂN
Fourth Sunday of Easter-A

SATURDAY

Celebrant:

Brothers and sisters, Jesus Christ is the Good Shepherd who laid down his life so that his sheep may have life and have it abundantly. With gratitude, let us now present our prayers to God.

Reader:

1. For all priests, that they may celebrate the Holy Mass with devotion and faithfully proclaim the Word of God, so that they themselves may be sanctified by the Lord and lead the people of God to true life in Christ. Let us pray to the Lord.
2. For the leaders of nations, that they may seek justice and sincerely work together to make peace. May war and hatred in the world soon come to an end, so that all people may live in harmony and happiness. Let us pray to the Lord.
3. For an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life, that young men and women may generously respond to God's call and offer their lives in the service of God and His Church. Let us pray to the Lord.
4. For all members of our parish community, that we may recognize God's call and respond generously through works of charity, so that we may truly labor for the Kingdom of God and salvation of souls. Let us pray to the Lord.
5. For our personal intentions, for those for whom this Mass is offered, and for all the faithful departed, that the Lord may graciously hear our prayers and grant eternal rest to those who have gone before us. Let us pray to the Lord.

Celebrant:

Lord Jesus, Good Shepherd, you never abandon the sheep who stray. Graciously hear the prayers we bring before you, and grant us the grace to respond to your call. Who live and reign forever and ever. Amen.
