Brothers and sisters, God has lovingly chosen us to be His own people and sends us forth to proclaim His Kingdom. With grateful and trusting hearts, let us bring our prayers before the Lord:

Reader:

1. For Pope Leo, all bishops, priests, and deacons, that they may be formed after the heart of Christ the Good Shepherd, serving God's people with compassion, truth, and self-giving love. Let us pray to the Lord.
2. For world leaders, that they may seek justice, work for peace, especially between Iran and the United States, and respect the dignity of every human life, so that all people may live in freedom, charity, and hope. Let us pray to the Lord.
3. For the sick, the poor, the lonely, and the abandoned, that the Lord may draw near to them with His mercy, bring them healing and strength, and affirm them of His love. Let us pray to the Lord.
4. For our Parish Youth Day, that this gathering may lead our young people closer to Christ, strengthen their love for the Church, and help them become joyful witnesses of the Gospel in their families, schools, and communities. Let us pray to the Lord.
5. For all families and members of our Parish community, that we may grow in unity, love, and mutual support, and become living signs of God's mercy in the world. Let us pray to the Lord.
6. For personal intentions, which we now offer in silence... also for the intentions of this Mass, and for all the faithful departed, that they may enter into God's Kingdom. Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord Jesus Christ, You promised that where you are, your disciples may also be. Graciously hear the prayers we offer you today, and send us your Holy Spirit, that may lead us to the Father. You live and reign forever and ever. Amen.
